Director of Musical Arts

Overview:

The Presbyterian Church of Madison's vision for ministry is to see lives transformed, families strengthened, and our community renewed through intentional relationship with Jesus Christ. We feel called to live into that vision by reaching de-churched families that have moved to our community for its quality of life. We are looking for a Director of Musical Arts to help us reimagine what it means to be the church for families in 2018 and partner with us to become that church.

Position Purpose:

- ❖ To collaborate in creating a holistic, exciting, vibrant, and meaningful musical worship experience incorporating the full spectrum of styles from traditional choral music and bells to contemporary worship.
- ❖ To provide leadership for PCM's music ministries developing a healthy mix of traditional choir, bell choir, and contemporary praise vocals. To play with the worship band and accompany the congregation and choir on piano, organ if possible, or instruments of choice as needed.

Status:

This is a 12-15 hour per week salaried staff position reporting to the pastor as the Head of Staff.

Responsibilities:

- ❖ Create a vibrant and meaningful music worship program for an energetic, growing, community-focused church that engages multi-generational families and children to support and fulfill our vision.
- ❖ Recruit, schedule, manage, rehearse, and accompany singers and musicians in partnership with other worship leaders.
- ❖ Collaborate with other worship leaders to select and manage the entire music program for worship.
- ❖ Coordinate, schedule, and be present for mid-week rehearsals of choirs, soloists and band as necessary.
- ❖ Praise God in worship leadership as an active participant in worship services.
- ❖ Develop meaningful relationships with volunteers, families, and staff.

Qualifications:

Ideal candidate is personally rooted in a mature faith in Jesus Christ. Driven by a love for worship arts, our Director of Musical Arts will be gifted and have a successful track record in multi-generational worship music program development and execution.
