Families Strengthened

Welcome, we are glad you are here!

SEPTEMBER 23, 2018

5:00 PM

WELCOME TO THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH of MADISON

Relax. We're glad to have you, just as you are. We believe Jesus Christ teaches us that, so we really mean it. You're a child of God and you're safe here, no matter what.

Each one of us is in a different place on this life journey. The person next to you may be here for the first time, or they may have been born into a family in our church for generations. We're all continually learning, growing, and evolving as we connect in the Spirit with the rest of the world.

Children in church make squirmy joyful noises to the Lord! Babies cry! Relax about all that, too. If you wish, safe childcare is available for 4 and under. Your greeter will be happy to show you the way.

Please stick around after church for a few minutes if you have the time. We have refreshments and fellowship time in the lobby area. It's a great way to get acquainted!

Check out the box below for how it all works. We're all different, together, and God isn't finished with us. Come and see!

Scripture Reading

Mark 9:30-37

(N.T. pg. 42)

³⁰They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; ³¹for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, “The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.”³² But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.³³ Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you arguing about on the way?”³⁴ But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest.³⁵ He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, “Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.”³⁶ Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷“Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.”

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

What gifts do you bring? Share with us! Joyful worship comes from the soul of our collective Spirit. Come find your voice or vision here! Come play, sing, ring bells, read, lead, serve communion. If you have a gift of the arts such as music, drama, dance, poetry, prose, painting, or sculpting for example, please give some thought to sharing it in worship. What a great blessing!

About Today's Worship

We are developing a more blended style of worship with new contemporary worship songs and music as well as our traditional hymns and pieces. We will sing hymns (mostly from the new Presbyterian hymnal, Glory to God). The choir will sing. The bell choir will play. We will hear our students. We will hear soloists. We will hear the band. It's a mix, and we may not have everything in the same day—unless you want to skip lunch. We hope it touches you.

About Today's Readings

We print the scripture readings in the bulletin, so you can follow along more easily. We also include the page numbers if you want to read from your pew Bible. Except where noted, all of our readings are usually from the New Revised Standard Version translation.

About Mark 9:30-37

While it's separated by a number of verses, today's scripture actually picks up on the theme of last week's reading from chapter 8. This is known as the "second announcement" of who Jesus really is. And like last week, there is misunderstanding and debate surrounding it. In the culture of the Gospel time-frame, children are the lowest status people of the household. Like all people in the margins, children are also "children of God" and are welcome kin to God on earth.

Tonight 5 o'clock worship in Webb Chapel returns. When your schedule interferes with Sunday morning, this is for you! Think "unplugged" church—it's very casual. Acoustic guitar in a mix of praise and familiar music, prayers, and messages that touch your soul. Director of Family Ministries Patrick Allred and Pastor Scott are leading. Let's go to Romanelli's to eat and hang out after!

Coffee with Scott

What's on your mind? Solve the problems of the world? Well, we can try...Pastor Scott will be at Drip Coffee every Thursday morning at 9am. Stop by and FIKA (Google it), cuss and discuss, see if you can melt an entire biscotti in a cup of tea—we might even talk about God. Crazy, right?

Qur'an/Bible Study, Oct. 2nd@7pm

This is an amazing study! We're putting our sacred texts, the Qur'an and the Bible, together in real, transformative, life-application ways! Come share with our Muslim friends and see what we mean—you will be touched by the similarities. So far, we've covered the common Abrahamic origin of both traditions—Islam and Judeo/Christianity, and who is God/Allah? This time, the topic is Who is Jesus/Mohammad (peace be upon them)? Please note the new, later time. Don't miss it!

Bottle Hill Day, Oct. 6th

PCM is THE place to be on BHD—and we need to get our ducks in a row! This is an “all-hands-on-deck” call for PCM! Bottle Hill Day is our full-day outreach to the community with a petting zoo and pony rides on the church lawn! Plus, this year we're adding the “Blessing of the Animals” at 12n. What better day? What better time? We have several ways to help! Set-up, tear-down, volunteer at the booth on Waverly just off Main Street, or you can volunteer here at the church. There's plenty for everyone and every schedule for the day.

Host a Student

The Afghan Girls Financial Assistance Fund (AGFAF) helps Afghani young women get an education here in the US. Would you be willing to host a 25-year-old female Drew student during holiday breaks? (Thanksgiving, Christmas/New Year, and Spring Break) Sound interesting? Email Corinne Bowen at cmbowen149@gmail.com for details.

2018 Per Capita

Each year congregations in our Presbytery pay a per member fee that provides support for Newton Presbytery (Morris, Sussex, Warren and portions of Hunterdon and Passaic counties), the Synod of the Northeast (New Jersey, New York and all of New England), and the General Assembly.

We ask all those who are able to consider covering your 2018 per capita fee of $35 per member. This includes youth who have been confirmed.

Paying your per capita allows us to allocate all of your pledges and offerings to the operations and missions of this church. When paying your fee please note “per capita” on your check or envelope.

Worship Bulletins Online

Be sure to check out each week’s worship bulletin! We’ve been publishing them online for a while at the church’s website. Watch for us to start putting links online so you can go see YouTube versions of the songs we sing!

PCM Social Media

We’re making more and more use of social media communication in our church. Follow the links in the eNews to Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter!

Breeze is Blowing

Watch your email inbox—We’re installing new church management software called “Breeze”. You’ll have a chance to set up your family’s account—first thing to do is change the password! Breeze will be the communication hub for all things in PCM church life, event registration, giving statements—the whole nine. It’s a breeze...

Interfaith Food Pantry

PCM supports the IFP year-round with hundreds of pounds of food to serve eligible Morris County residents. Aging people on fixed incomes, low-income working families—the need is great! Doris’s Care Wagon will be inside the back door of the parish house. Named for long-time member and IFP advocate Doris Weber, the wagon has served our food collection for years!

The food of the month for September is Side Dishes. Rice and pasta mixes like Rice-A-Roni and Pasta-Roni are most needed, as are “add protein” products like Hamburger Helper and Tuna Helper. Pick up a package or two the next time you do your grocery shopping, and leave them in the basket in the Narthex or Doris’s Care Wagon. The IFP clients thank you.

RAMP

PCM Mission is now partnering with Refugee Assistance Morris Partners (RAMP). RAMP provides transitional assistance, housing, and other needs for vetted Middle Eastern and other refugee families to transition to productive lives of dignity, safety and hope in the Morris County area of New Jersey. RAMP has long been a part of the Madison Area #BelovedCommunity conversations and our church joins other inter-faith communities and civic groups as full partners in this effort! The PCM 2018 "Quarters" mission campaign will directly benefit RAMP. For more information, and ways to get more involved, visit the RAMP website at www.rampnj.org.

Peace and Global Witness Offering – October 7th

"Now may the Lord of peace ... give you peace at all times in all ways." – 2 Thessalonians 3:16.

Sometimes it feels the world is coming at us so quickly that we don't know which way to turn, where to look, what to do next. In a chaotic world, we find strength in knowing that God is always near. Today we are joining in Paul's prayer that God grant us "peace at all times, in all ways." Peace. For our world, our family, our community, our church and ourselves – peace at all times, in all ways.

The Peace and Global Witness Offering of the PC(USA) provides the tools and resources for all Presbyterians as we join together as active peacemakers. Our Mission Team has already agreed that our 25% share of this offering will help to support the work of Maria Eugenia Delgadillo in Nicaragua. 25% will be used to support peacemaking work in our region, and the remaining 50% supports the active work for peace being done by Presbyterians everywhere.

Envelopes will be available on October 7th, or you may text PEACE to 20222 to give $10.

The author of this Trinitarian text is unknown, but this hymn has proved popular since the middle of the 18th century, partly because of its effective use of biblical metaphors, but also because of the strength of this tune, which was composed especially for these words.

The author and composer wrote the first stanza and folk-style tune after attending a Bible study on Matthew 6:33. The later stanzas, based respectively on Matthew 7:7 and Matthew 4:4 emerged anonymously. Such meditative singing of scripture is an important form of sung prayer.

Thy Word Is a Lamp unto My Feet 458

Refrain

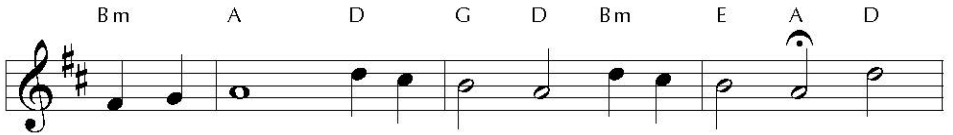

Thy word is a lamp un-to my feet and a light un-to my path. Thy word is a lamp un-to my feet and a light un-to my path. When I feel a-fraid, and I think I've lost my way, still you're there right be-side me. Noth-ing will I fear as long as you are near. Please be near me to the end.

The refrain of this 20th-century song is a quotation of Psalm 119:105 in the King James Version. That longest of all psalms celebrates the gift of God's law by accumulating many synonyms for it. In Christian practice, this verse has been used to give thanks for all Scripture.

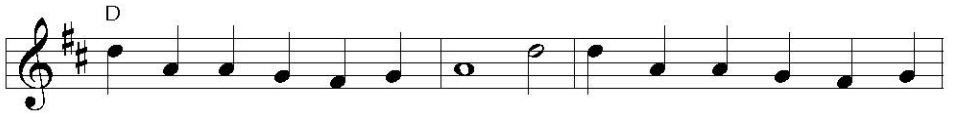

Doxology

Holy Spirit ever more: Praise Tri- une God whom we a-
